7 Brands With Nazi Ties That We All Use

Bayer, the company most known for their popular product Aspirin, has its own horrifying history with the Nazi regime.

Bayer was created as an independent company, but by the 1930s were a part of the company IG Farben, a conglomerate formed by a number of major chemical companies in Germany. And as a German chemical corporation in the Nazi regime, IG Farben committed a long list of atrocities.

When Germany invaded Czechoslovakia, IG Farben worked closely with the Nazi government and military to capture chemical factories in the nation so they could be used by the corporation.

IG Farben was also the company that developed the Zyklon B gas that was used in Nazi death camps to kill Jews and many other “undesirables.” Furthermore, IG Farben relied on concentration camp slave labor throughout World War II and the Holocaust. They built a factory next door to the infamous Auschwitz concentration camp and would use the prisoners at the camp for slave work. At the end of the war, IG Farben was dissolved, and the directors of the company were put on trial for war crimes. (Nuremberg)The "I. G. Farben Case" charged 24 defendants, who were the leaders of the I. G. Farben concern, with spoliation of property in invaded countries and participation in Hitler's slave labor program. Thirteen of the defendants were found guilty and received prison sentences ranging from one to eight years in prison. <https://allthatsinteresting.com/major-brands-nazi-collaborators/7>

Bayer-Monsanto merger can't erase Nazi chemists' past

Bayer's new deal to buy Monsanto breaks records not only due to its size but because of its evil smell – and not only due to Monsanto's reputation for deadly trails of everything from disappearing wild flowers and butterflies to poverty-stricken family farmers forced to buy its seeds and pesticides.

Bayer, perhaps best known for its aspirins or other useful medicines, also has a trail marked with death, but in far, far greater numbers. It was Bayer, together with two other chemical giants, BASF and Hoechst, which developed the terrible chlorine gas used in World War I. In 1925, the three formed a giant cartel, IG Farben, which became the world's leader in pharmaceuticals, dyes, and chemicals.

During the early 1930s, IG Farben became the single largest donor to the election campaign of Adolf Hitler. Although it was slightly reluctant at first, because some of its key scientists were Jewish, in the decisive year before Hitler won power, IG Farben donated 400,000 marks to him and his Nazi party. This was amply rewarded. IG Farben, with Bayer, became the single largest profiteer of German conquests in World War II.

IG Farben was not only interested in fuel and rubber, however. Correspondence between Bayer managers and the Auschwitz commander included such exchanges as:

"With a view to the planned experiments with a new sleep-inducing drug we would appreciate it if you could place a number of prisoners at our disposal,"

"We confirm your response, but consider the price of 200 RM [reichsmarks] per woman to be too high. We propose to pay no more than 170 RM per woman. If this is acceptable to you, the women will be placed in our possession. We need some 150 women,"

"We confirm your approval of the agreement. Please prepare for us 150 women in the best health possible,"

"Received the order for 150 women. Despite their macerated condition they were considered satisfactory. We will keep you informed of the developments regarding the experiments,"

"The experiments were performed. All test persons died. We will contact you shortly about a new shipment."

When their conquest plans collapsed and their genocide was ended, the world expected that such men would be punished, and in August 1947 the U.S.-organized Nuremberg War Criminal Tribunal against IG Farben began, with U.S. prosecutor Telford Taylor stating:

"These IG Farben criminals, not the lunatic Nazi fanatics, are the main war criminals. If the guilt of these criminals is not brought to light and if they are not punished, they will represent a much greater threat to the future peace of the world than Hitler if he were still alive."

A few questions:

Did the REAL perpetrators of these crimes against humanity get exposed to the world and receive justice?

WHO FINANCED THE EXPERIMENT KNOWN AS NAZI GERMANY?
WHO WERE THE REAL ARCHITECTS?
ARE THEIR IDEOLOGICAL DECENDANTS STILL LOOSE IN THE WORLD?

“The records of the Nuremberg War Crimes Tribunal document that Bayer, BASF and Hoechst gave more than 80 million Reichsmark to the Nazis and their sub-organizations. In return for this “investment” IG Farben took over the chemical, pharmaceutical and petrochemical industries in the countries occupied during WWII with the ultimate goal to create and dominate a “European Market” from Lisbon to Sofia.”

Monsanto and Bayer’s Chemical Romance: Heroin, Nerve Gas and Agent Orange

“Fifty years ago, the Monsanto and Bayer corporations were forced to separate in order to avoid violating basic antitrust regulations. U.S. courts declared that the two chemical giants, when operating together under the name Mobay, stymied market competition and comprised a monopoly that could not stand.

But that was then. Today, under a much different regulatory climate that all but rubberstamps such corporate monopolies, the Germany-based Bayer’s $66 billion offer to purchase Monsanto is being fast-tracked by U.S. regulators. The proposed mega-merger, or re-marriage, will result in nearly 30 percent of all worldwide pesticide and seed sales being controlled by the new partnership.”

I do not claim to have any final word on any of this. I will only present the best research I have personally collected over the years and will provide you with sources to follow up on. I am not an expert on any of this. I am merely a collector of experts and information. So take note of the names mentioned so you can better inform yourself about what you are about to hear. I invite you to make these subjects your own, and to make up your own mind. As the old saying goes,

“if you dont control your own mind, someone else will.”

“Just look at us. Everything is backwards, everything is upside down. Doctors destroy health, lawyers destroy justice, psychiatrists destroy minds, scientists destroy truth, major media destroys information, religions destroy spirituality and governments destroy freedom.”

- Michael Ellner

“It is simply no longer possible to believe much of the clinical research that is published, or to rely on the judgment of trusted physicians or authoritative medical guidelines. I take no pleasure in this conclusion, which I reached slowly and reluctantly over my two decades as an editor of The New England Journal of Medicine.”

- Harvard Medical School's Dr. Marcia Angell

“We physicians take an oath to put the medical needs of our patients above our financial self-interest, and nearly all emergency physicians adhere to that oath. Hospital administrators, insurers, and government bureaucrats take no such oath and feel no such ethical obligation.”

-Dr. Edwin Leap The Committee of 300 by Dr. John Coleman

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OCzR7NCeMYA&t=1s> “when I came to the United States in 1969, I found that names like the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, Club of Rome the German Marshall Fund, the Cini Foundation, the Round Table, the Fabianists, the Venetian Black Nobility, the Mont Pelerin Society, Hellfire Clubs, and many others were at best totally unknown here, or else their true functions were at best but poorly understood, if at all. ““The Club of Rome is a conspiratorial umbrella organization, a marriage between Anglo- American financiers and the old Black Nobility families of Europe, particularly the so- called "nobility" of London, Venice and Genoa. The key to the successful control of the world is their ability to create and manage savage economic recessions and eventual depressions. ““The Club of Rome has its own private intelligence agency and also "borrows" from David Rockefeller's INTERPOL. Every U.S. intelligence agency cooperates very closely with it, as does the KGB and the Mossad. The only agency that remained beyond its reach was the East-German intelligence service. the STASSY. The Club of Rome also has its own highly organized political and economic agencies. It was they who told President Reagan to retain the services of Paul Volcker, yet another im-portant Committee of 300 member. Volcker stayed on as Federal Reserve Board chairman, notwithstanding the faithful promise of candidate Reagan that he would dismiss him as soon as he, Reagan, was elected.”
